NAFI Master Ground Instructor Accreditation (MGI)

The NAFI Master Ground Instructor accreditation is a national accreditation that may be earned by aviation instructors and educators based upon a system of advanced professional standards and peer review. The accreditation granted by NAFI serves a dual purpose. First, it identifies and publicly recognizes those who demonstrate an ongoing commitment to excellence, professional growth, and service to the aviation community. Second, it sets professional standards to which all aviation instructors and educators can aspire.

The designation requires a rigorous process of continuing professional activity and, like a flight instructor certificate, must be renewed biennially. To promote continuous involvement in the aviation community, designees must remain active and renew their accreditations every 24-calendar months. Unlike one-time awards for past achievements (i.e., a “Gold Seal” flight instructor certificate or “Flight Instructor of the Year”), the Master Instructor designation acknowledges an individual’s continuing professional growth and involvement in a broad spectrum of aviation endeavors.

Benefits of NAFI Master Flight Instructor Accreditation

- Recognition by their professional aviation education association that they have achieved a level of professionalism and excellence that exceeds government/industry minimums;

Minimum Eligibility Requirements

Candidates for the Master Ground Instructor (MGI) designation must meet the following minimum eligibility requirements. A candidate must:

- Be a NAFI member in good standing;
- Maintain NAFI membership during the term of accreditation;
- Subscribe to and abide by NAFI's Code of Ethics;
- Be of good moral character [i.e., FAR 61.153(c)];
- Have Internet and e-mail access;
- Have demonstrated involvement and leadership in the local aviation community;
- Have held, for a minimum of 48-calendar months (4 yrs), a valid FAA/ICAO-issued Ground Instructor Certificate, if applying for a MGI designation.
(the Board of Review may make rulings outside these guidelines for good cause)

Candidates must present a minimum of 32 CEUs for activities completed within the 24-calendar months immediately prior to issuance of the NAFI Master Ground Instructor accreditation.

CEU is a continuing education unit. The CEU is used to quantify an instructor's activity level as a part of the application process. Approximately 15 hours of work equals 1 CEU.

You should claim the amount of credit you feel is warranted for the activity and provide your justification for the amount of credit claimed. For this reason, it is important to provide detailed descriptions of the activity (or the actual work) that was completed and time spent on it so that it may be given fair credit. The final CEU value is determined by the NAFI Master Instructor Board of Review after considering the time expended and quality of the activity during the review of an applicant's documentation package.

The required minimum of 32 CEUs must meet the following criteria:

- A. At least sixteen (16) CEUs must come from at least two different "EDUCATOR" category activities;
- B. At least two (2) CEUs from two different activities must come from the "SERVICETO THE AVIATION COMMUNITY" category;
- C. At least two (2) CEUs from two different activities must come from the "CREATOR OF MEDIA" category;
- D. At least two (2) CEUs from two different activities must come from the "PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY" category.

Candidates are cautioned that each activity submitted must stand-alone with no duplication within the categories.

Activities, Documentation and CEUs

All Master Instructor portfolios are reviewed in their entirety by the NAFI Board of Review (BoR).

Each activity shown on the “Example Master Instructor Activities” pages is assigned an approximate number of continuing education units (CEUs). The number of CEUs granted for a particular activity is a function of the time spent completing that activity. The activity’s “quality” is also considered. Typically, colleges require approximately 15 hours of direct involvement for a single college credit. A similar time requirement is used to determine the number of CEUs granted for an activity. All student-contact time (both flight & ground) applies and may be counted toward total activity time.

Candidates must accumulate a minimum of 32 CEUs (hours) during the 24-calendar months prior to issuance of the NAFI Master Ground Instructor designation. The required minimum of 32 CEUs must meet the following criteria: A) at least sixteen CEUs must come from at least two different EDUCATOR category activities, B) at least two CEUs from at least two different activities must come from each of the SERVICE, MEDIA, and PARTICIPANT categories. Candidates pursuing more than one designation are cautioned that each portfolio submitted must stand alone with no duplication of activities.

Listed categories on the “Example Master Instructor Activities” pages show multiple examples of typical activities that could qualify for CEU credit and are not intended to be all-inclusive. If the applicant’s activity does not identically match any of the activities listed, the Board can review it for accreditation. Simply describe the activity on the required Activity Completion Form (ACF) and attach appropriate supporting documentation. The activity must fall within one of the four categories and will either be awarded an appropriate number of CEUs or denied credit. Each activity submitted for credit, whether a listed activity or a similar topic, must be accompanied by an MI-3 along with appropriate supporting documentation.

Application Process

Each applicant for NAFI Master Flight Instructor accreditation shall complete an application package consisting of the following documentation:

Note: Application packages can be in digital or paper format. If digital, please send either a usb storage device, or a CD/DVD storage disk containing all the needed files. Files accessible using Google docs, Dropbox, or other cloud storage is acceptable, but individuals should contact NAFI Administrator at NAFI@nafinet.org with access information prior to registration.

The Evaluation Process

Each portfolio is first checked for completeness and to assure that the candidate meets all eligibility requirements. Then a detailed evaluation of each submitted activity is undertaken with particular attention directed to the activity’s documentation as well as inclusive dates and time spent completing the activity. Typical turnaround time for complete and properly documented portfolios is two to three weeks.

The two problems most frequently encountered are:

- A) missing or incomplete Activity Completion Forms and
- B) inadequate activity documentation.

If the applicant initially does not fulfill all designation requirements or if activity documentation is not adequate, s/he is contacted and afforded an opportunity, not to exceed thirty (30) days, to either provide additional information or withdraw the application from consideration. These contacts are accomplished by telephone and e-mail. If the candidate still does not meet all requirements, the application is denied. Applicants wishing to appeal a denial must do so in writing to NAFI’s Executive Director within thirty (30) days.

Checking an applicant’s professional references is the final step in the review process. Routinely, local FAA representatives, aviation related employers or supervisors, local pilot examiners and/or Master Instructors in the same geographic area are contacted.
